AFFIDAVIT UNDER 37 CFR 1.131

I, Dan Hubert, declare the following:

1. I am the sole proprietor of Dan Hubert & Assoc. ("DHA"), a law office which provided legal services to Enosys Markets, the former assignee of the above-captioned application.
2. On Tuesday March 13, 2001 DHA transmitted a number of items to the inventors of the subject application by parcel delivery service. These items included: (1) the subject patent application in completed form, and (2) documents for the execution and of the application before the United States Patent & Trademark Office (USPTO). The foregoing is evidenced by the correspondence of ATTACHMENT A.

3. Saturday March 17, 2001 and Sunday March 18, 2001 were weekend (non-business) days.

4. On Thursday March 22, 2001 DHA began work to review and revise papers and transmittals required to file the application in the USPTO. The foregoing is evidenced by the billing records of ATTACHMENT B.

4. Friday March 23, 2001 was not an assigned workday for the only secretary (part-time) of DHA. The foregoing is evidenced by the secretary's timekeeping records depicted by ATTACHMENT C.

5. Saturday March 24, 2001 and Sunday March 25, 2001 were weekend (non-business) days.

6. On March 26, 2001 DHA further revised and finalized the USPTO filing papers and transmittals, and had them hand-delivered to a photocopy company. The foregoing is evidenced by the billing records of ATTACHMENT B.

7. On March 27, 2001 DHA received the aforementioned photocopies, assembled the application for filing, and attended to USPTO filing of the subject application via U.S. Postal Service Express Mail. The foregoing is evidenced by the billing records of ATTACHMENT B.

Re: U.S. Patent Application, entitled "Reconfigurable Query Generation System For Web Browsers"
File: ENSY-002

Dear Vasilis:

Patent Documents Enclosed

Enclosed for your review and possible signing is the above-mentioned patent application that has been revised in accordance with your suggestions. The application includes 62 pages of text and 11 sheets of drawings. I have also enclosed a Declaration and Assignment which are bound to the application to form a single document. If any of these items is missing, please call me as soon as possible.

Instructions for Executing Application

Each inventor should execute the application by observing the following guidelines. Please review the application, including all figures and claims, for accuracy and completeness. Spend sufficient time reviewing the application that you understand the content of the application, including each of the claims. Also, please review the application to ensure that it has been revised to your satisfaction.

In reviewing the application, and especially the claims, please keep in mind the references that you brought to my attention (if any), as well as references located during a preliminary patentability search (if any were conducted). It's important that the claims accurately define your invention, and that they not "read on" any prior art. Please let me know whether any other related references have come to your attention; if any have, please keep them in mind when you review the enclosed application, and provide me with a copy at your earliest convenience.
